We don't have to try and make it work.
We don't have to try and work it out.
It was clear to me, instantaneously.
I'm beyond a shadow of a doubt.
I don't have to try to be true to you
It's something I am not something I do
I've got no ambiguity.

Lovin' you comes naturally.

My feelings never flowed so free before
I've never been more me
I can't stay away from you
You can't get too close to me
I don't have to try to be true to you
It's something I am, not something I do
I've got no ambiguity

Lovin' you comes naturally

I'm the treble, you're the bass
We're playing our way thru time and space
You're the rhythm, I'm the rhyme

We don't have to try and set things straight
We don't have to try to get it right
It was clear to me, instantaneously
We're a classic case of love at first sight
I don't have to try to be true to you
It's something I am, not something I do
I got no ambiguity
My feelings never flowed so free

Lovin' you comes naturally to me

My Last Romance

You say, I'm the only one
That makes, you come all undone
And that may be the way you truly feel

Your touch, electricity
Your kiss, is makin me
Believe that what you say is real

I want to surrender, but I remember

My last romance was a breath takin'
soul shakin' rush
I fell so fast, too bad it didn't last long enough
I wanna take the time to know you better
Build a love that'll last forever
And if you want to lead me through this dance
I'm ready for my last romance

It takes, more than pretty words
To make, a love that really works
It takes commitment and a willing heart

I need, a man who understands
That's he's, a permanent part of my plans
Someone who will finish what he starts

I want to surrender, but I remember

My last romance was a breath takin'
soul shakin' rush
I fell so fast, too bad it didn't last long enough
I wanna take the time to know you better
Build a love that'll last forever
And if you want to lead me through this dance
I'm ready for my last romance

OOOOOO, baby won't you say you do

Wanna take the time to know me better
Build a love that'll last forever
And if you want to lead me through this dance
I'm ready for my last romance

Only In My Dreams

I must resist the irresistible
I cannot kiss those lips so kissable
I'll never hold you near or whisper sweet things in you ear
Except in my dreams

For in my dreams, we'll love each other endlessly
And all my schemes and fantasies come true
And there you hold me near, and I feel no fear,
Oh, it's crystal clear
But only in my dreams

He sleeps beside me 'til the morning
But you wake my nights without a warning
No matter who I choose I must lose a part of me
But not in my dreams

For in my dreams, we'll love each other endlessly
And all my schemes and fantasies come true
And when you hold me near, I feel no fear
Oh, it's crystal clear,
But only in my dreams

You came along unexpectedly
I'm torn between you and his trust in me
It hurts me so, to let you go but I want you to know

That in my dreams we'll love each other endlessly
And all my schemes and fantasies come true
And there you hold me near and I feel no fear
It's so crystal clear,
But only in my, only in my,
 you'll be only in my dreams

Don't Write Don't Call

Don't write Don't call
I don't need to know how you lost it all
I don't want to hear you cry and complain
'Bout how everyone else is to blame
I can't catch you every time you fall
It just hurts me and don't help you at all
So don't write, don't call, that's all.

Don't write don't call
You've run out of time and I've heard it all
I've learned what it means to be tough
I've learned that sometimes even love ain't enough
I can't catch you every time you fall
It just hurts me and don't help you at all
So don't write don't call, that's all.

Time and again it's true
I've done my best to care for you
But you only drag me down to hell with you
So don't keep knockin' on my door
I don't want to know you anymore

I can't catch you every time you fall
It just hurts me and don't help you at all
So don't write don't call that's all

She Knows Better

She sneaks into the house way after dark They've been watching the clock with worrying hearts
Her well-rehearsed excuses sound so thin
She says they just don't understand Slams the door and locks herself in Ain't no surprise she's grounded again

Seems like only yesterday---she'd hang on every word they'd say
Now she rolls her eyes and says yeah, whatever
She's 15 and thinks SHE KNOWS BETTER

She met him at a dance in the high school gym
He was a singer in the band with a sexy grin
One passionate kiss and he stole her heart It's a few months later and he's movin' on
She packs her bag to tag along..and tell her folks She'll call from wherever they are

Mama cried and Daddy swore...as their little girl walked out the door
And they say "That boy won't stick around forever"
But she's in love and thinks SHE KNOWS BETTER

They made it down to Tennessee
But it wasn't as easy as he thought it would be So he took his southern comfort anywhere he found it
You know there's just no easy way around it

Life ain't always what it seems When you're livin' on nothin' but hopeless dreams
When you money's all gone and love won't pay the rent
She was coming home from workin' a 12-hour day
Down at the factory for minimum wage
Walked into their room and reality hit

Everything she had was gone...he'd left her there all alone
Just a note saying he'd never forget her
But she knows him and SHE KNOWS BETTER
Yeah, she knows him and SHE KNOWS BETTER

So she sneaks into the house way after dark They've been countin' the years with
worrying hearts
Praying for the day she'd come back home again

Take Me

Take me, any which way you want
'Cause I love it, every which way you do

Take me at my word, take a chance on me
I'm ready for a true romance with you I'm ready for anything, give me your all and everything,
Take me any which way that you want to

Take me, any which way you want
'Cause I love it, every which way you do

Take me in your arms, hold me oh so close 'Cause I can't wait to give myself to you Sweep me off my feet, take my breath away
Take me any which way that you want to

'Cause I love it every which way you do

Take me out on a date, pick me up early bring me home late Take me for a moonlight ride, down along the river side

(Instrumental)

Take me, any which way you want
'Cause I love it, every which way you do
Yes I love it, every which way you do

Red Eye

I know I said I wanted independence
I know I said I wanted to be free
I also said I feel that I belong to you And yes I said I want you to love me

Well I can't reconcile all my contradictions
But we can rise above them we can reach the sky
So I'm gonna take the red eye and fly right home to you

I know I said I didn't need you help
To do the things I said I wanted to do Now I've been gone long enough to know
I don't want to go on without you

Well I can't reconcile all my contradictions
But we can rise above them
We can reach the sky
So I'm gonna take the red eye and fly right
home to you

You said makin' love to me was heaven on earth for you
You said you hate to separate from me
But I fled from your bed in the middle of the night
Even though it felt so good I could not feel right
