SAME OLD YOU

In my arms there's someone new I give my goodnight kisses to,
But it's still The Same Old You in my heart.

No other lips, no other touch,
Gets to me baby, half as much,
Yes it's still The Same Old You in my heart.

I thought that I would find a newer, truer love,
But I might as well stop before I start.

Although I try, oh how I try To kiss your memory good-bye,
It's still The Same Old You in my heart.

REDEMPTION

Life is a funny thing you know when you stop to reflect on the times you've been so wrong, oh so wrong
And truth has a way of showin' up when you're out of breath and you're out of luck from runnin', runnin' so long
You never thought this day was gonna turn out like this
But you've got to face it, it is what it is so you pray

For a little redemption, a little forgiveness
when peace of mind is your sole intention
A little freedom a little grace in a world of imperfection
Redemption, oh Redemption

Was a time when jealousy broke your heart, foolish pride tore your world apart, Ah you only hurt yourself And angry words you wish you could change, you feel the guilt and live with the shame Yeah, you're gonna need a little help They say confession is a real good thing, and you know what you want this night to bring so you pray

For a little redemption, a little forgiveness
when peace of mind is your sole intention
A little freedom a little grace in a world of
imperfection
Redemption, redemption

And you wonder what it is that you've been doing all this time And why it took so long for you to finally realize

You need redemption, a little forgiveness
when peace of mind is your sole intention
A little freedom a little grace in a world of
imperfection
Redemption, redemption, oh Redemption
A little freedom a little grace in a world of
imperfection
Redemption, Redemption, oh Redemption

WHAT AM I SUPPOSED TO DO

I wake up it's another day but I can't see the sun
I go to work and do my job just to get it done They say that it gets easier but right now all I find Is I'm goin' through the motions and goin' out of my mind

What am I supposed to do,
with this heart of mine
With all this extra time
I was sure that you were all I needed
So baby I surrendered everything I am to you
What am I supposed to do

I think of all the promises we made that turned to dust
And all the stars we wished upon
I wish they'd been enough I'm movin' on with my new life, and I tell myself I'm fine
But I'm goin' through the motions and goin' out of my mind

What am I supposed to do,
with this heart of mine
With all this extra time
I was sure that you were all I needed
So baby I surrendered everything I am, to you
Now what am I supposed to do

I still reach for the phone to tell you I'm home Then I remember your gone
I still hold you in my dreams, barely holdin' on
What am I supposed to do

I was sure that you were all I needed
So baby I surrendered everything I am to you
Now what am I supposed to do
What am I supposed to do
What am I supposed to do

THE FIRST THING EV'RY MORNING (AND THE LAST THING EV'RY NIGHT)

Words and Music by Ruth Roberts & Jimmy Dean

The First Thing Ev'ry Morning
and the last thing ev'ry night,
I think of you and all the things I'd say and do, If only you were here to whisper sweet things to.

I'd tell you how much I love you,
How I'm longing to hold you tight,
The First Thing Ev'ry Morning,
And the last thing ev'ry night.

BOTTOM LINE

Honey, you've been hesitatin'
How long you gonna keep me waitin'
Will you be hers or will you be mine
Let's just cut to the bottom line

I've been as patient as I can be I'm at the end of my rope darlin' don't you see I'm ready to tie the knot that binds
So let's just cut to the bottom line

Don't you go playin' with my affections
Don't you go runnin' off in the wrong direction
Wake up now honey and make up your mind
Let's just cut to the bottom line

This ain't the time for negotiatin' Let's close the deal baby time's a wastin'
My kind of lovin' ain't easy to find
So let's just cut to the bottom line

Don't you go playin' with my affections
Don't you go runnin' off in the wrong direction
Wake up now honey and make up your mind
Let's just cut to the bottom line
Why don't we cut to the bottom line

KINDRED SPIRITS

Billy and Bobby said Peggy Jo was like just one of the guys
Best friends, secret hand shake, summer camp in July Then Jr. High and High School, damn those years can be rough But in and out of trouble the three of them would just hang tough like Kindred Spirits, joined at the heart forever
The same hopes and the same dreams
believing in each other
Never doubt the love of Kindred Spirits

Billy and Bobby both fell hard, for the girl of their dreams
Who knew that girl would be Peggy Josephine But she could never chose between them they went their separate ways But they found out that time and distance couldn't break the velvet chains of Kindred Spirits, joined at the heart forever
The same hopes and the same dreams
Believing in each other
Never doubt the love of Kindred Spirits

Billy and Bobby went off to war, Billy never came home
Bobby married Peggy Jo a little later down the road
Now they tell their son Billy, how their best friend blessed their lives Bitter sweet are the memories that keep his Kindred Spirit alive

Never doubt the love of Kindred Spirits,
Kindred Spirits

Like Billy and Bobby and Peggy Jo

COLD WIND BLOWING

Words and Music by Sandra Piller and Aaron Broudy Piller Sounds Music Publishing (ASCAP) and Aaron Octagon Publishing (ASCAP)

There's a cold wind blowing through town
tonight
I'm wishing you were here holding me tight
You know that I miss you when you're not around
I feel a little frightened when I hear the sound Of a cold wind blowing through town
There's a cold wind blowing through town

It feels like we're headed for a storm
I remember nights we kept each other warm Nights when you sang me your songs Nights when we stayed up and played until dawn
But now it feels like we're heading for a storm
There's a cold wind blowing through town

I'm wondering where you are and wishing on my lucky star
That you're missing me as much as I miss you

Wish I could feel your touch
So soft, tender and warm Cause I'm feeling so lonesome and blue When I hear the sound of the thunder rolling in the rain pouring down
There's a cold wind blowing through town
tonight
Where ever you are I miss you and kiss you goodnight

FORK IN THE ROAD

There's a fork in the road that we just didn't see Now we've come to a place where we must part company
Where ever we're goin' we're each goin' on our own
I hope we'll come together again, somewhere down the road

We've traveled down life's highways together for so long
I know I'm gonna worry 'bout your bein' on your own
I sure do feel uneasy, goin' on alone But there's no turnin' back from this
fork in the road

There's no way to know if these paths meet again
Or what lies along them or where they do end I look in your eyes and see the truth we can't deny There's a fork in the road and we've got to say good bye

There's a fork in the road and we're facin' strange new choices It's so hard to see you through the tears in my eyes
There's a fork in the road and we're hearin' stranges new voices It's so hard to hear you say good bye

It's so hard to know I won't be with you tomorrow It's so hard to see you through the tears in my eyes Let's stand here together heart to heart for a while

Cause I know when I go I want to leave you with a smile
Yes I know when I go I want to leave you with a smile

FALLEN ANGEL

Words and Music by Aaron Broudy

Used by permission. All rights reserved. 2009 Shady Hill Records

In spite of all the mistakes I've made In spite of all the fools I've played
Lord have mercy on me
You know how hard I've prayed

In spite of all the lies I've told In spite of all the damage done
Lord, have mercy on me
Please forgive me and send me one

Fallen angel for whom I can feel
One fallen angel whose broken wings
I can heal
Lord, have mercy on me

In spite of all the promises broken
In spite of all the lies I've spoken
Lord have mercy on me
I was asleep but now I've awoken

Fallen angel for whom I can feel
One fallen angel whose broken wings
I can heal
Lord, have mercy on me

Please don't let me go on living like a lost soul
Send me a fallen angel whose broken heart
I can make whole

Fallen angel for whom I can feel
One fallen angel whose broken wings I can heal
Lord, have mercy on me
Let me be redeemed by love

GET ON THE HEAVENLY ROAD

Words and Music by Ruth Roberts and Bill Katz Goldenrod Music, Inc. (ASCAP)
Used by permission. All rights reserved. 2009 Shady Hill Records

Get on (get on) the heavenly road.
Get on (get on) the heavenly road.
Oh, get on (get on) the heavenly road
And walk in the light of the Lord.

Mister, stay off (stay off) of Lucifer's path Stay off (stay off) of Lucifer's path
And get on (get on) the heavenly road
And walk in the light of the Lord.
If you walk in the way of the kind and good And do what the Good Book says you should, Lord's gonna lead you by the hand to the milk and honey of the promised land.

So get on (get on) the heavenly road.
Get on (get on) the heavenly road.
Yes, get on (get on) the heavenly road
And walk in the light of the Lord.

Mister, by-pass (by-pass) the valley of sin.
By-pass (by-pass) the valley of sin
And stay on (stay on) the heavenly road
And walk in the light of the Lord.

If you face temptation and you let it be
And don't eat the fruit of the Trouble Tree, Lord's gonna greet you like a special friend When He comes to meet you at your journey's end.

So get on (get on) the heavenly road.
Get on (get on) the heavenly road.
Yes, get on (get on) the heavenly road
And walk in the light of the Lord.
